Meyer Najem Construction Wins 2007 Business of the Year Award from Janus Developmental Services

(Fishers, IN) October 16, 2007 – Janus Developmental Services, Inc. awarded Meyer Najem Construction with the 2007 Business of the Year Award and the Volunteer Award went to Ashley Dyer.

On Friday, October 5 Janus Developmental Services, Inc. celebrated the achievements of their clients and staff with its Annual Meeting and Awards Dinner Banquet at the Hamilton County 4-H Grounds in Noblesville. The evening honored local businesses and clients who donated their time, money and hard work to help make a difference in the lives of those who are touched by Janus Developmental Services. Meyer Najem Construction was presented with the Business Award for its Swing into Giving Golf Outing Fundraiser, raising $22,000 in support of the programs and services that Janus provides. In addition, Ashley Dyer was awarded the Volunteer Award for her leadership and effort in making the golf outing a huge success!

Janus Developmental Services, Inc. provides individuals with intellectual and physical disabilities the opportunity to participate and contribute within the community through training, education, and the development of social skills.

Janus Vision Statement

Janus is the recognized partner of choice for individuals with disabilities, their families and the community. Our clients are defined by their abilities, not their disabilities. By offering first class opportunities for education, employment training, independent living services and information, we give individuals and their families help, hope, confidence, and a choice that results in a sense of achievement. We accomplish this through board oversight, media exposure, and providing sought after, leading-edge programs.
