(Fishers, IN) – May 2, 2008 - Sam Mishelow, Executive Vice President at Meyer Najem Construction has been selected as a new Board Member of the Hamilton County Leadership Academy. Sam completed the Leadership Program in June '05.

The Hamilton County Leadership Academy is a leadership development program that identifies and prepares informed leaders for our community. Program participants are brought together by their commitment of time, energy and expertise and their desire to be involved in Hamilton County. Graduates of our program are found throughout our community, holding elected office and serving on Boards of Directors. They are our local leaders who work to create and sustain a thriving community for all of us to live, play and work. For more information about the Hamilton County Leadership Academy, access their website at www.hcla.net.

BUILDING VALUE. BUILDING SOLUTIONS. BUILDING RELATIONSHIPS.
