College of Technology at Purdue University Honors Anthony Najem as Distinguished Alumni

(Fishers, IN) April 20, 2009 – Purdue University's College of Technology honored eight former graduates as Distinguished Technology Alumni on Friday (April 17) during a ceremony at the Purdue Airport. Anthony Michael Najem, CEO of Meyer Najem, was honored for his professional and personal success. Anthony earned a bachelor's degree in building construction management in 1981. He spearheads the company's strategic plan and is responsible for the final approval of the annual operating budget. Meyer Najem was recently recognized as the 2009 General Contractor of the Year and also has received Awards of Excellence for various projects from the Associated Builders and Contractors for the last 22 years. In addition, the Fishers Chamber of Commerce has twice named the company Business of the Year, and, in 2005, the Association of Fundraising Professionals honored Meyer Najem with the Outstanding Small Business Philanthropist Award.

Meyer Najem is one of the leading construction managers and contractors in the region, with an emphasis in Healthcare and Institutional Markets.
